Thy praise is on a nation's longue;

When Pierce and Pope are both forgot,

Fear net! thy name shall live as long

Thy grave to future ages be

Thy mem'ry will be tresh and young.

As sun and moon and star may shine!

A sacred, dear, and hallowed shrine!

And, though thy foes come like the waves.

Long may thy star-genuned banner wave

Of all her children's thankful strairs.

Long may thy arm have stre igth to wield

The sword drawn in thy country's cause!

Upon her heights and hills and plains;

Thou wilt, like it, withstand their shock

Like wolves, at night, from out their lair;

Stand firm! and let thy brave resolve

Be fixed as old Cabralter's rock,

Then let the foreign bandits come,

Thou wilt guard thy native land.

And keep it ever free and fuir!

TO FANNY FERN'S 1,000 000 READERS. A NEW BOOK COMING!!

We have the pleasure of an nouncing that we have no press, and shall publish about the first of December, a new work of fiction entitled ROSE CLARK.

A Bomance-BY FANNY PERV. A Roomanice—WY FAAAY First.

The last work and first continuous tale of this bull and and fascinating and ress, "buth ball" achieved a success unexampled in the annals of letters, as the language of a leading periodical, it "created a more produced seasation then any which has been issued during consider of a century." But it is unnerposed to almost not be to the merits of "Both Hall." Judging from the numbers of it we have sold, we judge that everybody in the United States has read it. As respects the work we have now in press, ROSE CLARK, we can only say that we greated it as in every respect. a "reader, be to It will form an elegant 12mb, volume of over-hou pages rice $1.85, on receipt of which copies will be said by fail, post-paid. RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

Is to be used in all cases where there is pain. The moment it is applied externally, or taken internally, it will allay the most tottning aches, pains, cramps, spasms, burns, scalds, &c. quicker than Morphine. Chloroform. Verattine, or any other anodyne or remedy that nas ever heen used by medical man.

It is safer than these dangerous remedles. The public will bear in mind that thloroform, Morphine, Opinm acconly stifle the pain by stapifying the senses, so that the perceptive faculties ionise the power of feeling, and that after the influence of these narcinities have passed from the system—the pain again treaks both with its terrible pangs, with tenswed blence.

Radway's Ready Rehef stops the pain and removes the cause of the disease that occasions it, it infuses new life into the we k and diseased parts. It braces up the neaves, and establishes in the system a reaction of health and streng tun place of pain weakness and disease.

As a counter irritan, Ra'way's keady Resistaphication or congestion, it will instantly scatter the congested himd, evunitzes the circulation, and in a few or uses in flamation or congestion, it will instantly scatter the congested himd, evunitzes the circulation, and in a few or uses in flamation or congestion, we cream application of Radway's Ready Schiel will restere the patient to case and countoit.
